Are they the product of brilliant minds making a quantum leap? . Or of advances in the methods and instruments of research? . The answer is both . Fine minds and the right circumstance are both necessary for the significant breakthroughs that allow us to understand our world and the universe we inhabit . This book provides vivid proof of this potent combination through personal stories from twenty-five of Canada's best researchers . Experience their world of innovation as they share fresh insights in an impressive variety of fields, from superconductors to supernovas; from biostatistics to biotechnology and genomics; from health care delivery to robotic surgery; from quantum computing to aircraft safety and environmental change; from family history to native culture, literature, and law . Each researcher tells of personal and professional...
