Excerpt: . . . labor for a term of four years and to pay a fine of 1 and costs. The case is brought here by proceedings in error to reverse the judgment. There are a number of errors assigned, but as there is no bill of exceptions in the record there is but little left for us to review. The numerous motions made by the defendant during the progress of the case, the objections made at the trial, the instructions offered and refused, and the motion for new trial, are saved in the record by proper bill of exceptions, and present no questions for our consideration. The defendant demurred to the indictment at the proper time for the reasons: I. That the grand jury which found the indictment had no legal authority or jurisdiction to inquire into the offense charged for the reason that said grand jury was not selected,...
