Excerpt: . . . 11 4. adequate line-item budget to support the mission; and 5. legislative policy support for the mission. 9 11 HIJACKERS EMBEDDING TACTICS In 9 11 and Terrorist Travel, my able colleagues and I discussed in depth the many varieties of terrorist travel tactics. These include fraudulent manipulations of passports, terrorist calling card indicators, abuse of a lax Saudi visa adjudication process, and a solid understanding of how to acquire immigration benefits such as a change of status from tourist to student, or a tourist extension of stay. We also discuss how one 9 11 pilot abused the vacuum of information between the State De-partment consular officers responsible for adjudicating information and immigration benefit application information, a loophole largely closed today with the Student and Exchange Visitor Information System (SEVIS). Another pilot absconded from the immigration benefits system altogether, never seeking to change his tourist status to student despite attaining his pilots license while in the United States. Two other pilots sought to change their status from tourist to student, enabling them to subse-quently re-enter the United States under confusing legal guidelines. Another hi-jacker sought to extend his stay, did so too late, but was approved anyway. The 9 11 hijackers also acquired a total of 28 state-issued identifications or driv-1 ers licenses (with four additional issued as duplicates), six of which we know were 2 used at ticket counters on the morning of 9 11. Below is a narrative, roughly chronological, explaining the various 9 11 hijackers encounters with immigration benefits, at that time housed in legacy INS, and today housed...
