Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Manual for Junior Classes: 1903-1904 The chapters herewith submitted are written in simple story-form, arranged with sub-topics so that when necessary assignments may be made to several members of the class. In every case, however, all of the class should be encouraged to read the entire chapter. The lessons are only outlines. Many of the most instructive and interesting details are purposely omitted, with the intention that the teacher shall introduce these at the proper time. Care should be taken to emphasize the character of the man considered, giving a subordinate place to many of the historical facts, and making in every ease the commendable characteristics stand out boldly. The references, questions, and suggestions relating to the lessons, do not follow the respective chapters, but are given at the end of the treatise. The reason for this arrangement is to relieve the chapters of the appearance of a task and thereby make the manual more attractive. Two characters are taken from the Book of Mormon and are considered in their proper chronological place. The life...
